

Christmas Carol Mad Libs

Instructions: Begin by printing out this worksheet. Ask a friend for the requested word forms, noted in parentheses, and fill out the lyrics as you go. When you're finished, be sure to serenade them with your new Christmas hit! May your days be even merrier with this bit of musical silliness.

I'm Dreaming of a White Christmas

I'm dreaming of a (color) _____ Christmas.

Just like the one (person's name) _____ used to know.

Where the (plural noun) _____ glisten and children (verb) _____

To hear (plural noun) _____ in the (noun) _____.

I'm dreaming of a white (noun) _____.

With every Christmas (noun) _____ I write.

May your days be (adjective) _____ and (adjective) _____.

And may (number) _____ of your Christmases be white.

(Famous person's name) _____ is dreaming of a white Christmas

Just like the ones I used to know.

Where the treetops (verb) _____ and (plural noun) _____ (verb) _____

And (verb) _____ sleighbells in the snow.

I'm dreaming of a (adjective) _____ Christmas.

With every (adjective) _____ card I write.

May your (plural noun) _____ be merry and (adjective) _____

And may all your (plural holiday) _____ be white.

Have a Holly, Jolly Christmas

Have a (adjective) _____, (adjective) _____ Christmas

It's the (superlative) _____ time of (season) _____.

I don't know if there'll be (plural noun) _____

But have a cup of (noun) _____.

Have a (adverb) _____ jolly Christmas,

And when you (verb) _____ down the (noun) _____.

Say (exclamation) _____ to friends you know

And every (person's name) _____ you meet.

Ho Ho a (noun) _____

Is hung where you can see.

(A famous person) _____ waits for you,

Kiss him/her once for me.

Have a holly, jolly (holiday) _____

And in case you didn't (verb) _____,

Oh (exclamation) _____ have a holly, jolly Christmas

This (day of the week) _____.

Jingle Bells

Dashing through the (type of storm or natural disaster) _____

In a (number) _____ horse open sleigh

Over the (plural noun) _____ we go,

(-ing verb) _____ all the way.

Bells on (plural noun) _____ ring,

Making spirits (adjective) _____.

O what fun to (verb) _____ and (verb) _____ a sleighing song tonight!

Oh jingle bells, (adjective) _____ bells,

(-ing verb) _____ all the way.

Oh what fun it is to ride

In a one (an animal) _____ open sleigh. Hey!

Jingle (noun) _____, jingle (noun, same as previous) _____,

Jingle all the way.

Oh what fun it is to (verb) _____

In a one horse (adjective) _____ sleigh!

You're a Mean One, Mr. Grinch

You're a (adjective) _____ one, Mr(s). (person's name, to be used the whole song) _____

You really are a (noun) _____.

You're as (adjective) _____ as a (noun) _____.

You're as (adjective) _____ as a (noun) _____,

Mr(s). (person's name) _____!

You're a (adjective) _____ banana with a greasy, (a color) _____ (noun) _____.

You're a mean one, Mr(s). (person's name) _____.

Your heart's an empty (noun) _____.

Your (a body part) _____ is full of (plural bugs) _____.

You've got (a spice) _____ in your soul,

Mr(s). (person's name) _____!

I wouldn't touch you with a (number) _____ inch pole.

You're a (adjective) _____ one. Mr(s). (person's name) _____.

You have (plural bugs) _____ in your smile.

You have all the tender sweetness of a (adjective) _____ crocodile,

Mr(s). (person's name) _____.

Given the choice between you, I'd take the (adjective, same as previous) _____ crocodile.

Rudolf, the Red-Nosed Reindeer

Rudolf the (a color) _____-nosed reindeer

Had a very shiny (body part) _____.

And if you ever (verb, past tense) _____ it,

You would even say it glows.

All of the (adjective) _____ reindeer

Used to (verb) _____ and call him (adjective) _____.

They never let (adjective) _____ Rudolf

Join in any (an animal) _____ games.

Then one (adjective) _____ Christmas Eve,

(A fictional character) _____ came to say:

“Rudolf with your nose so (adjective) _____,

Won't you guide my (noun) _____ this (day of the week) _____?”

Then how the reindeer loved him,

As they shouted out with (an emotion) _____,

“Rudolf the (a color, same as first) _____-nosed reindeer,

You'll go (a cardinal direction) _____ in history.